

Carolyn Rose

Vice President, Jewish Community Foundation
Jewish Federation of Palm Beach County

Carolyn currently serves as Vice President of the Jewish Community Foundation, a department of the Jewish Federation of Palm Beach County. She continues to build and enhance Federation's portfolio of Legacy giving to support long-term programs and initiatives of the Federation, partner agencies and local synagogues.

Prior to joining Federation, Carolyn served as the Chief Development Officer at the Mandel Jewish Community Center of the Palm Beaches and grew the organization's annual giving by 35% by implementing a total Financial Resource Development model. A seasoned professional with 26 years of experience, she also served as Associate Vice President of South Palm Beach County Federation's Foundation Department and led their Professional Advisory Committee which received nationwide recognition for raising millions of dollars on behalf of the Jewish community through relationships with professional advisors. In addition, she oversaw strategic planning to cultivate volunteers and donors and provides training on planned giving development.
