Julie Petillo practices in public accounting as a tax manager with Holyfield & Thomas, LLC. Her focus is on the estate, trust, and charitable needs of the firm's clients. She received her B.S. in Accounting from Florida Atlantic University, her J.D. from Loyola University in New Orleans, and holds the Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy (CAP) designation. She is a member of the AICPA, the FICPA, FAWL and the East Coast Estate Planning Council professional organizations. Outside of public accounting, one of her most rewarding volunteer opportunities has been with PACE Center for Girls: Julie and other members of the Florida Association for Women Lawyers participate with students in a monthly program called "Breakfast and Books."
