

Dimitri Chimerakis

Dimitri Chimerakis is a Vice President and Insurance Planning Director at Morgan Stanley. He works with his clients to build financial plans and develop tailored wealth management strategies to create an effective road map to help them reach their retirement goals. His clients include business owners, physicians, coaches & athletes, retirees, and non-profit organizations.

A graduate of Villanova School of Business in 2008, he earned a degree in finance with a concentration in entrepreneurship. He was a four-year varsity tennis player and academic standout. A proud supporter of his Alma Mater, Dimitri is a founding member of the Villanova Club of Palm Beach.

Throughout his career, Dimitri has been actively involved in the community while serving as a Board Member for the Jupiter Police Foundation and Planned Giving Council of Palm Beach County. He also sits on the Jupiter Medical Center Foundation's Highballs & Hibiscus Committee and Planned Giving Council and is a proud Ambassador of the Honda Classic. He is passionate about leadership, sports, and setting a good example for youth. In his free time, Dimitri enjoys travelling, playing golf and tennis, and training for the next endurance race. He lives in Tequesta, FL with his wife, Jen, newborn son, Chase, and labradoodle puppy, Bear.
