

Kim Hanson

As the Major/Planned Gifts Officer for Peggy Adams Animal Rescue League, Kim Hanson manages programs for major contributors and for those wishing to leave a lasting legacy in support of the animals. Hanson began her development career with the Planning and Management Assistance Project of the Center for Community Change in Washington, D.C. in 1978 and has dedicated her professional life ever since to the development of educational, health-care, social service, environmental and animal welfare agencies throughout the Midwest, Northeast and now Southeast Florida. Still a capital campaign consultant with the Episcopal Church Foundation (NYC) and former Board member for the Washington, D.C. chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals, she has served as a Trustee of several hospitals, environmental, and literacy groups. She holds her B.A. from Bryn Mawr College, her M.A. from the University of South Dakota and received her Master Gardener certificate through the cooperative extension service of Cornell University.
